

Helping Hand

Mal Cooper/Larson Newspapers

"SMOKEY", A Humane Society of Sedona cat was up for adoption at Cody's Pet Emporium. The store hosted "Christmas for Critters in July" for the Humane Society of Sedona. This is a third annual event to raise much needed funds for the humane society. Several raffle prizes were donated from local businesses and artists including a sculpture of a cat by Barbara Brown. Cody's Pet Emporium raised approximately $1500 by donating the profits made during its business day Thursday, July 25.

Photo by Michelle Borgwardt

And the Winner Is ...

DeeAnn Vyne, owner of Cody's Pet Emporium, left, and B. Skielvig, executive director of the Humane Society of Sedona, gathered to draw the winning raffle ticket of "Sampson," a bronze sculpture by Sedona sculptor Barbara R. Brown. About 200 people attended the third annual "Christmas in July" held July 25 at Cody's Pet Emporium in the Oak Creek Factory Outlet Mall in VOC. The all-day event was a fund-raiser for the Humane Society of Sedona with all of the store's proceeds from the day donated to the shelter. Villager Pat McGovern was the lucky winner.